A daily dose of Revolution of Revelation for a full year! 365 Jesus Rants covering the year from July 10, 2012 to July 9, 2013. This daily devotional covers a wide range of topics, but can be summed up in one word: Jesus.

To read this book is very easy, and once you read it, you will become enlightened. And once you are enlightened, you will become knowledgable. And once you become knowledgable, you will be inspired to make better decisions in your "every day" life. And once you make better decisions, you can control your own life and destiny. Everybody can find "something" in life that they can relate to more than others and to guide them to or from circumstances and situations beyond their control. This is a story about a young man who was easily influenced by friends and for bad reasons early in life. It tells how this young man's mind was "Revolutionized" by the "Revelation" that was revealed to him during the lowest point in his life. It reveals how "Everybody" is "Somebody" and somebody is connected to somebody who is connected to "GOD". "Author"

I learned I would have to write another book, when I thought my first book said it all. I guess the subject matter gave a little too much information that surprised those involved in some way or would or could affect the outcome if read and understood. I still write for a reason and purpose. Not just for a select few but for all to rise above situations that have held them back, unreachable to the point of unteachable. For they know it all and have more than their share and are they deserving? Then there are those who have lost so much to the point of too much. Now struggling and living in desperation. Certainly not the quality of life expected when we should have learned from mistakes made and not repeat. Instead mistakes became profitable for those who controlled the outcome through their new designer rules and laws. Our economy weakened through bad judgment and questionable practices that were never quite understood. Not temporary but for too many years never addressed. Becoming emotionally and financially draining. Always about the bottom line. No longer about the quality of life, respect or dignity or the ability to aspire for better. We need to address and correct, to really look deep into our real reason and purpose. We have been given the gift of revelation to learn and restore for the good.. Isn't it time we work together to find solutions that work for all? Know and believe. Then we can.

INTRODUCTION I have been from 2008 saved and 2010 passionate for Jesus. I sinned and was forgiven much. I proportionately love Jesus by the amount He forgave me! From 2010 I have been earnestly praying into Word. The words of revelation revolution came together during 2019 after finishing Found, the book The LORD had me then write. Revelation revolution comes from the fact that each time we read The Bible there is a new revelation that comes to spirit, heart and mind. It is a revolution because there is a constantly wonderful barrage of new revelations daily. Revelation revolution is exactly this. It is the constant revelation that occurs as we read Word from The Bible. For this we praise GOD from Whom all blessings and revelations flow in a revolutionary manner. I encourage you to systematically read The Bible and as possible find a good study Bible. For example, I enjoy the Life Application Study Bible as it greatly helps with an excellent enhancement in understanding the past and present Biblical principles. The reason for the words of The LORD'S Inner Chamber is for the fact that mostly when I am sitting in our prayer room by the house, I feel to be seated in The LORD'S Inner Chamber from which revelations are released to me in a revolutionary manner. The beauty is that Jesus' Holy Spirit flows through us who call on His Name and The LORD'S Inner Chamber is within us wherever we go on planet earth! The purpose of this book is to highlight the value, importance and power of taking The Bible, reading Word, and praying into Scripture. The LORD'S revelation revolution comes from Father GOD'S Heavenly Inner Chamber. There is undeniable Power in The Bible. Our LORD Christ Jesus' Holy Spirit becomes Living Word through those of us reading The Written Word aloud. I find it wonderfully exciting and exhilarating to take The Bible, find a verse, read that specific Word aloud from my inner spirit, heart and mind to my tongue speaking to GOD'S ears as a prayer. I do my best to capture and make The Bible integrated into my inner spirit man! Sometimes I have an awesome experience of tangibly feeling Jesus' Holy Spirit! There are times when we simply proclaim Word as a declaration of faith in spite of possibly feeling dry during "winter" or "desert" days. GOD Is the LORD of The Harvests. He sends the rains to bless the seeds! Practice and more practice is the way to incorporate praying The Bible into life and our lives. The above is one of the many ways that Jesus' Holy Spirit becomes Living Word through us. Word becomes alive through Jesus' body. Then our LORD and Savior, Christ Jesus, can on our behalf activate the Heavenly hosts to accomplish His great achievements through us. One of the reasons for this book is to elaborate on how we can call on The Name of Jesus, Who is pure Power, when we understand and read aloud Scripture as prayer. The LORD hears us from Heaven and activates in the spirit realm what must happen to manifest here in the natural on earth. The LORD wants for us to have deeper wisdom, knowledge, understanding, and discernment of The Bible. GOD wants us to have ability to make decisions, productivity, profitability, influence and power. We experience this by carefully reading, chewing on, digesting, absorbing and leveraging Word from The LORD'S Inner Chamber as a Revelation Revolution here on earth. May this book help highlight ways and means to employ The Word into The Fullness of Life in Jesus' Abundance. Note: Bible versions used are King James Version (KJV), The New King James Version (NKJV) and Dr Brian Simmons' The

For Steve Chase, being a faithful friend and follower of Jesus has always meant being engaged in nonviolent revolutionary work to bring about a beloved community which embodies spiritual wisdom, social justice, and ecological sustainability. His understanding of this call is informed by the Jewish prophets, Jesus, early Quakers, the life example of Martin Luther King, Jr., and by decades of reflection on his own and other people's stories of working to help heal and repair the world. In this pamphlet, written in part as a response to the Kabarak Call for Peace and Ecojustice, Steve distills the core features of the spiritual call to faithful activism and urges us to rise above the understandable, but debilitating, sins of denial, despair, and distraction. Discussion questions included.

Year two of the Jesus Rants. 365 MORE daily doses of a Revolution of Revelation! This volume includes the daily Rants (or blogs) from www.jesusrant.com dating July 10, 2013 - July 9, 2014

A book showing how every church doesn't believe in the word of God.

In the subtitle of this book, I chose the two themes of revelation and revolution because as I meditated on God loving me specifically and personally ... it transformed my Christianity. Like stated in Romans 12:2, my mind was renewed and my Christian walk revolutionized. It dawned on me that my sins alone put Jesus on that cross. Had the world not consisted of billions of people and instead the world only consisted of little ole me, He still would have had to die. My personal sin debt was enormous. I was born in sin and shaped in iniquity. There were no two ways around it. Yet, He did what He did because He loved me. Always had, and always will. He loves me. It is for this revelation alone that I wrote this book: so that you too can be revolutionized, like I was and still am being because it's a journey you never exit. Or ever want to. So I invite you to join me in a discovery of revelation and revolution as God unveils what it means to be loved by the Creator of the universe!

The focus of this work is on the basic writings of radical reformer and religious revolutionary Thomas Muntzer (before 1490-1525). Also included are materials written just before Muntzer's execution -- his confession, retraction, and last letter.

In the second of a proposed three-volume study, John and Jean Comaroff continue their exploration of colonial evangelism and modernity in South Africa. Moving beyond the opening moments of the encounter between the British Nonconformist missions and the Southern Tswana peoples, Of Revelation and Revolution, Volume II, explores the complex transactions—both epic and ordinary—among the various dramatis personae along this colonial frontier. The Comaroffs trace many of the major themes of twentieth-century South African history back to these formative encounters. The relationship between the British evangelists and the Southern Tswana engendered complex exchanges of goods, signs, and cultural markers that shaped not only African existence but also bourgeois modernity "back home" in England. We see, in this volume, how the colonial attempt to "civilize" Africa set in motion a dialectical process that refashioned the everyday lives of all those drawn into its purview, creating hybrid cultural forms and potent global forces which persist in the postcolonial age. This fascinating study shows how the initiatives of the colonial missions collided with local traditions, giving rise to new cultural practices, new patterns of production and consumption, new senses of style and beauty, and new forms of class distinction and ethnicity. As noted by reviewers of the first volume, the Comaroffs have succeeded in providing a model for the study of colonial encounters. By insisting on its dialectical nature, they demonstrate that colonialism can no longer be seen as a one-sided relationship between the conquering and the conquered. It is, rather, a complex system of reciprocal determinations, one whose legacy is very much with us today.

"Defining their enterprise as more in the direction of poetics than of prosaics, the Comaroffs free themselves to analyze a vivid series of images and events as objects of analysis. These they mine for clues to the 19th-century contents of the British imagination and of Tswana minds. They are themselves imagining the imagination of others, and they do the job with characteristic aplomb....The first volume creates an appetite for the second."—Sally Falk Moore, American Anthropologist
